FALCADA IS BEATEN

Grand Consolation Goes to The Squire.

MY GRACE FIRST IN 'CHASE

Tellfare, Favorite in the Hunter's Steeplechase, Takes a Header, but Mr. O'Brien Remounts and Finishes Third After an Excitng Race. Right Royal Easy Winner.

The Grand Consolation, for two-yearolds, was the big race at Benning yesterday, and it proved a surprise for the form players.

The event was for $3,000 added, at seven furiongs, and as R. T. Wilson's Falcada was thought to have first money at his mercy, he was made a 7-to-10 favorite, and it looked to be an especially good thing, as McDaniel had the leg up on the Woolsthorpe colt. Despite this, however, there was a steady play on The Squire, at 5 to 2, for many of the sharps were of the opinion that Joe Notter, who had the job of steering The Squire, would send him first under the wire. There was poor support for the others.

As soon as the barrier sprung Notter was ready for business, and he took The Squire to the front with a jump, and, like a flash, opened up a gap of three lengths When they swung into the stretch Mc-Daniel made his bid with Falcada, but he made but little impression on The Squire, who galloped home four lengths to the good in 1:30 2-5. Falcada beat Gets Off in Front and Tow-ropes the Smoker six lengths for the place, the latter just lasting long enough to snatch third money from King Sol. My Grace the Winner,

The Hunters' Champion Steeplechase was an exciting event, especially to those who wagered their money on My Grace who went to the post at 4 to 1, and carried the nice burden of 163 pounds. Tellrare, with only the light allowance of 116 pounds, was made favorite, and had J. O'Brien, the amateur steeplechase rider, in the saddle. Early in the fray Tellfare took a header, and the rider was thrown into the mud. The spill did not in any way shake his ambition, for he regained his pins, caught Tellfare, and started in pursuit, but he lost too much ground, and was never dangerous afterward. My Grace trailed Warrenton for awhile, and, after a series of stumbles which kept the crowd guessing, My Grace showed lots of speed on the flat, but was a poor fencer. At two miles he had the lead, and held it to the wire, winning by ten lengths from Warrenton, who was about a quarter of a mile in front of Tellfare. The opinioin was general that had the bay gelding not met with the accident he would have landed the money. McDaniel had the mount on Right Royal, an even-money favorite for the Benning Special, which was $1,000 added, at one mile and a half. The black son of Rapallo and Mrs. Delaney, who was $1,000 added, at one mile and a half. The black son of Rapallo and Mrs. Delaney, who was giving away a lot of weight, had the field safe from the instant the barrier sprung, and, taking the lead from the quarter past, won by two lengths from Pins and Needles, who beat Beauclere by four lengths.

George Washington is making every effort to get Crafts, the crack half back into shape for the Georgetown game. Crafts received a severe injury in the game with Gallaudet but he is improving, and may be able to play for a while Thursday.

Starting out with two games in which they failed to score, the Trinity College players rushed into the business of accumulating points with a vengeance, and in the next four games rolled up 173 points. They have lost only two games and were beaten by small scores in both of those. They lost to West Point, 6 to 12, and to Amherst, 6 to 11, then downed Westeyan, 5 to 6; C. C. N. Y., 94 to 6; Stevens, 29 to 6, and Union, 45 to 5. This gives them a total of 173 points for six games to 34 for opponents. The total against C. C. N. Y. is the top score of the Year.

The Virginja Polytechnic Institute team returned from Annapolis late yesterday afternoon and left here last hight for Blacksburg, Va. The Virginjans were somewhat disappointed at not being able to hold Navy to one touchdown, but the team is confident that it will wind up a successful season with a victory over North Carolina next Thursday. In speaking of the coming Georgetown-George Washington game, Coach Williams, the former University of Virginja end, said that he expects a hard-fought batter, as he does not believe that either team has a decided advantage.

As many of the earlies winneres are to play at Lakewood, the closing competition will have an impor tant bearing in determining the ranking of the players in this section.

In the open tournament in the specified district, Travers won the first cup in four, he being beaten by Travis in the Garden City final on the thirty-eighth hole, their only meeting on the circuit and in the spring at Atlantic City by Harold Sands after winning the score medal. Travers' Victories Many. Including the Metropolitan and New Jersey championships, the victories of Travers on local links numbered six. Besides the national Travers also won tournament cups at Wilmington, Maplewood, N. H., and in the important fall fixture at Myopia. It was Travers' year, yet it was not always plain sailing, for besides the defeat by Sands the champion had also to lower his colors to J. A. McCurdy, who was 1 up for the Lynnewood Hall cup at Huntingdon Valley, and to George Borup, who beat him by 3 to 2 at Ekwanok. Herreshoff won the Lynnewood Hall cup and also three at Ekwanok, besides other tournament successes, but his greates match was to defeat Travis in the Metro-
